Your FGWA Membership Includes Access to These Exclusive Benefits:

Listing in FGWA's Online Member Directory:

FGWA's membership directory is available at www.fgwa.org. Get seen by prospective clients 24 hours a day!

Subscription to FGWA's quarterly magazine, the Florida Driller:

The Driller is the official voice of the ground water industry in Florida and contains news of interest, including safety and business tips, and updates on legislative and regulatory matters.

Discounted Member Rate at FGWA Meetings:

FGWA holds its annual convention every May in Orlando and Quarterly Meetings at different locations around the state of Florida. Your FGWA membership provides you with discounts on meeting registrations for these events! These meetings will provide members with education and information on new equipment and services needed to address the ever-evolving ground water industry. In addition, these meetings also offer CE approved credit!

Member Communication:

Through mail, email and fax FGWA is constantly striving to keep you up-to-date on information about new products, industry information and legislative happenings that are important to your organization and the ground water industry.

Representation:

FGWA members play a vital and ongoing role in the DEP Workgroup Committee in representing the interests of water well contractors when proposed rules and regulations are under consideration. FGWA works closely with lobbyists to advocate legislatively on issues that impact our industry and your business.

Scholarships:

The John Kriska Memorial Scholarship Fund was established to honor FGWA Board Member John Kriska. Approximately 5-10 scholarships are awarded annually to immediate family of FGWA members to assist with college tuition, books and other related educational expenses.

FGWA Supplier Members Will Also Receive:

Discounted Advertising in the Florida Driller Magazine:

The Driller is published quarterly and sent to over 700 drillers, governmental agencies and other professionals in the ground water industry. At no cost, you may also submit technical articles for inclusion in the magazine and have a 1 page highlight of your company.

Discounted Sponsorship and Exhibit Booths:

Be seen at the largest ground water convention and trade show in Florida, and one of the top in the country. Sponsor one of the two Quarterly Membership Meetings and have the opportunity to present a 1 hour educational session.

Discounted Website and Email Advertising:

Promote your company on the FGWA's website, sponsor one of FGWA's monthly e-newsletters or market your company in our Supplier email campaigns that are sent to over 400 members to help promote everything from Press Releases to Specials to New Product Releases.
